A story we read is about hurtful and helpful words. We choose one or the other and draw a picture of how it would look and what that person had heard. The pictures are decorated in between rows of twisted ribbons. (That was a fine motor muscle exercise we experienced to create them)

World Compliment Day

We learn how to give a compliment and then to be proud and thankful and show our appreciation when we get one. We need to remember that hurtful words are not nice and they make our heart crinkle with sadness.