Written and illustrated by Jeanne Adams

Pigs and Honey
My holiday compared to the trip described in the text Pigs and Honey by Jeanie Adams.

A double bubble map to show similarities and differences.

---

Left Bubble

- They caught a big black pig and they cooked it for eating.
- They went to go hunting for pigs and honey.
- They called honey sugared honey.
- We are both going on a road to a holiday.
- They were all families.

---

Right Bubble

- My Aunty and Uncle were with my family.
- We ordered some food.
- We walked up to the top of the mountain.
- I stayed in a hotel and we ordered family food.
- We all have fun.
- We took a little bit of time to get to the wash.
My holiday compared to the trip described in the text Pigs and Honey by Jeanie Adams.

A double bubble map to show similarities and differences.

My holiday in Margaret River.
We went in a car and wore seatbelts.
My family is me, my mom, my brother and my dad.
We were living in a resort.
We went to the bush to go in the caves.
We stayed a long time.
We are families.
We could feel tired after driving or hunting.
We were happy to be on a holiday.

The Aboriginal people went camping at the bass.
The stayed in a tent made with bush.
They stayed for the weekend.
This family has 13 people.
The grandparents and cousins were there.
They went in a truck and had no seatbelts.

Daniel
My holiday compared to the trip described in the text Pigs and Honey by Jeanie Adams.
A double bubble map to show similarities and differences.

All the Aboriginal people are going to the forest in their truck.

Dad and me are in the tent at night and we are wearing our pyjamas.

We all had a tent.
We are all happy.

I just sleep in the tent. I could see the stars, my Dad could, he was outside.

All the people could not fit and it’s dangerous to ride on the back. There are no seatbelts, the snake. They saw snakes and the girl want to kill the tent with branches and leaves. Everyone is safe.