

WA Massed Choir Festival 2018 Rehearsals August 23, September 17 & 18 2018

Dear Parent / Carer,

The Campbell Primary School Choir is participating in the annual WA Massed Choir Festival on Tuesday 18 September 2018 at the Perth Concert Hall. This exciting choral festival offers our students the rare opportunity to perform in a magnificent venue and before an audience of 1100 parents, friends and special guests. The festival runs for 9 nights and involves over 87 primary school choirs. The students will be working hard learning the songs for this festival over Term 2 and Term 3. For this concert to be a success, our choir will be involved in the rehearsals with the dates and times below, as well as more detailed information regarding the Cluster Rehearsal.

Cluster Rehearsal Details

Students to wear school uniform.

Students to assemble in the Music Room at 11.00am on the Thursday 23 August 2018 morning. Choir students can bring a drink bottle (water only) and lunch in a disposable bag as we will eat this at the rehearsal. School bags can be left outside their classroom as they will not be taken on the excursion. Please ensure all jumpers and drink containers are clearly labelled with the student's name. Please take the time to run through these details with your child.

Concert Details – A basic run down of times and dates can be found above. A more detailed note will be sent home closer to the date with information regarding what to bring and wear.

Choir Uniform – students to wear their choir shirts, black pants, black shoes with black socks. Students will be given choir shirts prior to the concert.

Bus: A bus for the evening concert will be provided to transport the children to the Perth Concert Hall but no transport has been booked to bring the children back as I hope that all parents will be able to attend the concert. Those children whose parents cannot attend may be able to organise a lift home with another family. These arrangements need to be made between the parents involved. Please indicate below who will be collecting your child after the concert. If you are unsure at this time of who will be collecting your child, please let me know in writing as soon as you can.

Photograph / DVD: There will be an official photograph and DVD made of the concert. Order forms for the DVD will be sent home with your child. Please be aware that individual filming and photography of the concert is not permitted and refrain from bringing your camera to the event.
