Dear Parents/Carers,

Year 5 Excursion to Fremantle Prison

This year the Year 5 students have learnt about the history of the Swan River Settlement and researched significant people during Australia's colonisation. To further enrich their learning we would like to take them on an excursion to Fremantle Prison where they will participate in two guided tours. One will focus on Fremantle's convict history, while the other will share stories of some of Fremantle's famous prisoners and learn about their escapes. After the excursion, the students will then travel by bus to The Esplanade where they will have their lunch. After lunch they will return to school.

Students will be required to wear their Campbell Primary School uniform which includes their hats and are asked to wear comfortable walking shoes.

NOTE: LA's 15, 16 and 17 will be attending the excursion on Thursday 15 November 2018

Please ensure students pack the following:

- Fruit for morning tea (packed in a disposable bag) NO FRUIT CONTAINERS
- Lunch (packed in a disposable bag) NO LUNCH BOXES

All items are to be clearly labelled with your child's name please.
