

P&C FACT OR FICTION?

WE CAN'T DO IT WITHOUT YOU!

“The P&C can survive without volunteers.”

Fiction! Without the work of volunteer parents and citizens, there would be no events, no fundraisers, no canteen or uniform shop, and no special, and often crucial, projects to benefit our children.

“I should bring a six pack of energy drinks to meetings.”

Fiction! You won't need them. Our meetings are an hour long. Our motto is: Get in, get it done, go home! We are all busy.

“Someone is going to ask me to do something!”

Fact! You are smart, talented and skilled. A P&C would be crazy not to make use of you. Perhaps get in early and volunteer for the job that appeals to you or speaks to your strengths?

“The P&C makes the rules as they see fit.”

Fiction! A P&C is a legally recognised Association. They have a set of rules (Constitution) they must follow. Ask for a copy.

“If I take on a role such as Treasurer or Secretary I won’t have any support or help.”

Fiction! You’ll get support from current members and from WACSSO. WACSSO has councillors and staff to help you. WACSSO also offers FREE training sessions. You don’t have to take on a role now, but perhaps as you become more experienced and comfortable with your P&C, you’ll consider it.

“VOLUNTEERS DO NOT NECESSARILY HAVE THE TIME; THEY JUST HAVE THE HEART.”

SOME KEY ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE P&C INCLUDE:

- nature playgrounds
- stage in the UCA
- promethean interactive TVs
- running movie nights, sausage sizzles and discos.

Parents & Citizens (P&C) Associations have been recognised in WA legislation for nearly a century. P&Cs are held at a very high level of regard in the WA community.

The goals of P&Cs are:

- to foster strong relationships between the school and the community;
- to help provide resources for the school; and
- to promote interest in educational matters.

Meeting these goals is a great challenge for all Parents and Citizens in Western Australia!
